This doth certify that William Bass, son of John Bass and grandson of William Bass, is of English and Indian descent and is not a Negroe nor y<sup>t</sup> a Mulattoe as by some lately and malitiously stated. His late Mother Sarah Ann Bass was a virtuous woman of Indian descent, a daughter of Symon Lorina and Joan+ Tucker lawfully begotten. S<sup>d</sup> Joan Tucker was a sister of Robin Tucker a Christian Indian of y<sup>o</sup> Nansemund nation.

All of the Basses of this County descend from Capt<sup>n</sup> Nathaniell Basse, as satisfactorally proved by the records preserved.

John 20. 27.

After said he to Thomas, Put thy finger here; and see my hands, and put forth thy hand, and put it into my side, and be not faithlesse, but faithfull.

O blessed Saviour Iesus Christ: hath his wounds yet to be seene in his bodie for soure causes. First, to approoue his resurrection: secondly, to appease his Father: thirdly, to confound his enemies: fourthly, to comfort his friends. After said he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and see my hands, and put forth thy hand, and put it into my side, and be not faithlesse, but
